The community was shocked this morning by a report that Joseph Charless, senior partner in the firm of Charless & Blow, President of the Mechanics' Bank, and one of the oldest and most universally esteemed citikens of St Louis had been shot and kitled on the street by Joseph Thornton, formerly book keeper in the Boatman's Saving Institution. The re-

Mr. Charlens was met on Market street be Thornton who addressing him: "Mr. Charless, you are the cause of my being discharged in this city," caught him by the arm and drawing a revolver, fired twice in rapid succession, two balls taking effect in the abdomen of Mr. Charless, one anteriorly and the other posteriorly, mortally wounding him. The most intense excitement prevailed that the most respectable citizens lovers of law and declared that the murderer ought to be hang ment that at 10 o'clock the crowd started to the jail on 6th street, with the avowed deter-This was no doubt only averted by the Police starting a report that the prisoner had been sent to Jefferson Barracks. A large crowd not satisfied went to the iail and sent a committee of citizens into the jail to satisfy themselves that the prisoner was well secured.
